February 2012

Letter From the President:

We had a great meeting this month. The teachers were great and we learned a lot. We have 2 new members and I overheard members and guests saying how much they enjoyed the day.

Next month Paulette will be teaching a face.. We have been wanting her to do this. Some of us remember the last time she taught faces and she did such a great job we wanted her to do it again

.Sandy Scales seminar has been changed to March 31 and April 1. Mary Jo Leisure is July 14 and 15. They have been changed because of bike week. Check you calendar and reserve your spot.

Patti Primavera has agreed to Chair the Auction with the help of Georgia. I am sure we will all help to make this one of the best auctions. As everyone knows this is our only annual fund raiser and because of it we were able to have the free class in January. Just one of the benefits.

I want to thank Patty Bolema for volunteering to follow Anamae for the office of Secretary. Thank you Patty. We will need someone to follow Shirley Holden for the office of Treasurer and to follow Doreen McCollum for the office of President next year. So please think ahead on how you can help our club.

Ann Rimmer-Wagoner has agreed to chair Memory Boxes, Ginny Wiegand to chair Sunshine, and Ellen Weller to chair Port Orange Day. Thank you. Also Ellen Weller has agreed to work on the Auction Committee with Patti and Georgia.

I want to thank Ginny for stepping up and helping me unpack the camera equipment.. Putting the wires in the equipment does not take time. It is the unpacking.. So please offer to help so we can get the meeting started on time.

We have a few committee's still open. We still need someone for the Christmas Party, Education, Audio Visual and Historian.

Thank you to everyone for your contributions. I am looking forward to seeing everyone next month..

Doreen McCollum, President

The next Board meeting will be held at Patti Primavera's home on February 9th at 10A.M.

MESSAGE FROM THE 1st VP

What a great, successful January workshop.... I want to thank Anamae, Mary Sue, Ginny and Paulette for educating everyone on different brushes. I learned so much about the specialty brushes and I will definitely be using them. We had 30 people attend the workshop and they all enjoyed a fabulous free lunch and a fun knowledgeable day.

The February 18th class is filling up. We already have 16 people signed up for Paulette Capwell's Facial Features workshop. I have the pattern and will be sending them to anyone who sends me a check to participate. Please remember the deadline is the Wednesday before the class, February 15th. The pattern may be put on a canvas or masonite surface that measures approximately 10" x 12". Please base coat the surface white. If you use a canvas be sure to sand well between coats. Paulette will be supplying all other paints that are needed. This will be such a great class and I hope to see you all there!!!!

We meet every third Saturday of the month at the ARC Building at 9:00 AM.

DIRECTIONS - ARC Building, Jimmy Huger Dr. Daytona Beach FL.

From 95 NORTH and South take LPGA Blvd and turn East. Turn Right onto Jimmy Ann Dr. Turn right onto Jimmy Huger Dr immediately following school on right). Go left into first driveway-ARC!

FEBRUARY BIRTHDAYS

22 Judy Smith

A NOTE FROM YOUR SEMINAR CHAIR

Our next seminar is with Sandy Scales. The dates had to be changed because of Bike Week, and hotel rooms are extremely expensive. The new dates are MARCH 31 AND APRIL 1, 2011. Sandy will be teaching 2 projects of Maureen McNaughton designs. They are lovely.

March 31-Sat is the Daffa Rose Design
April 1- Sun is the Jellyfish Design

This is an acrylic seminar and paints will be provided by Deco-Art. You can paint these designs on your surface of choice.

The cost of the seminar is $40.00 per day. If you take both days the cost $75.00. Remember you can use your certificates. The seminar is filling up and the chapter has opened it to other chapters. I will be at the February chapter meeting.

Fondly,
Ann Foster Seminar Chair.

Paint-In - April 27, 28 & 29, 2012

As of today we have 25 members and non-members of Seaside signed up to attend Paint-In. The form to sign up for Paint-In is in this newsletter. The Paint-In is now open to other chapters and is limited to 30 attendees . Only room for 5 more. Paulette still has wind chimes available for her class. They are $3.00 each. Ann Hedberg has gourd eggs for sale for $1.00 each and will have them again at the next Chapter meeting. You may use a bowl or a gourd for Ann's class. An up to date photo of the project is in this newsletter. Winter Land Trio may be painted on an old record, large plate, large box (one surface) or on 3 separate ones - used cds. Alise's Purple Flowers may be painted on a surface of your choice. Alise painted it on a paper mache box. Mary Sue's class Saturday evening will be a pen and ink with water-color and she will supply the paper, paint etc. There is no prep work. If you have any questions, please contact us.

PAINT-IN PROJECTS

SEASIDE DECORATIVE PAINTERS GENERAL MEETING--JAN. 21, 2012

The meeting was called to order by President Doreen McCollum at 9:20am.

SECRETARY Anamae Coberly stated there were not any minutes taken in Dec. because of the Christmas party. The last minutes published in the newsletter was for Nov. meeting. No corrections, they were accepted as published in the newsletter.

TREASURER Shirley Holden said we had $7549.95 in our account. She asked if there were any changes to the budget published in the newsletter. Lee Fasnacht made a motion to accept budget as printed and Marysue Baldwin 2nd it. It was approved and passed. Shirley announced she will not be the treasurer for 2013 and will find someone to fill her spot.

1st VP. Dee Mitchell showed us the project for Feb. workshop and is taking signups. She also showed us the project for April's workshop.

SEMINAR CHAIR Ann Foster announced that we had to change the dates for the Sandy Scale Seminar scheduled for Mar. 17 & 18 to March 31 and April 1. Due to the conflict with Bike week. The class is open for 25 students per day. She has sign ups and will open the seminar to other chapters as of today. Mary Jo Leisure Seminar is July 14 & 15. Cost will be announced at the Feb. meeting. This seminar will be 2 oil classes, projects will be announced soon. SEMINAR PROCUREMENT for 2013 is being done by Joanne Tibbils. She stated that she could get Janelle Johnson to come in Jan 2013 for a colored pencil class. She asked if the members were interested in this seminar in Jan. instead of our normal March seminar. The club voted yes. She also suggested we move our seminars to Jan. instead of March because of bike week changes. This will be decided by the board at the next meeting. She is also asking Sherry Nelson to be a teacher in 2013. More info will come later.

2nd VP Lee Fasnacht introduced new members and guests. WE have approx. 50 members. She will bring the newly updated directory sheets to the Feb. meeting.

PAINT-IN, Georgia Strein reported that we have 24 signed up for the paint-in and the cut off will be 30. This function will be opened to other chapters as of today. Mary Sue said her Sat evening class will be changed. Paulette has the wind chimes for sale for $3 and Ann Hedburg has the eggs for $1. She also suggested using a wooden salad bowl in place of the gourd bowl.

AUCTION: Patti Primavera said the auction will be on Oct. 20 and to start thinking of bring friends to this function. We need more non-painters in the audience that will buy our art work. The theme is 12 days of Christmas.

QUILT: Joanne Tibbils had the quilt squares and patterns to be painted for the quilt. She asked for volunteers to paint these, and needs them back by the March meeting if possible. The tickets will be printed soon and we must make more of an effort to sell tickets so our seminars will stay reasonable.

NEW BUSINESS:

Doreen McCollum sent a sign-up sheet of committees that need to be filled.

Show and tell and raffles.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:05 am.

WEB SITE NEWS

Some have been having trouble viewing the new classes set up on the web site.
If refreshing doesn't work do the following.
Retype the following;

Sometimes the name comes up automatically but it will be the old pages viewed. Retyping should fix it.
